1. Login in the eLearning website <http://e-learning.msa.edu.eg/>

Match Overview

- The Match Overview is the default viewing mode for Originality Reports, where you can find a list of sources that have the greatest matches with the student's paper on the right sidebar.
- Each matching text, that is highlighted & numbered on the left, is referred to on the Match Overview box on the right sidebar.

- c. Click on All Sources View to display a list of every source found for the paper on the right sidebar.

- d. Click on each percentage on the right sidebar of All Sources View or click on each number on the student's text to view a pop up with the original text in a black colour while the one written in red is the student's text.
- e. Click on the x button in the top right corner of the pop-up to close the window.
- f. Click on Full Source View in the top right corner of the pop-up to view the full source text in the right sidebar.

The image illustrates the workflow for viewing a full source. It shows a document with a 'Full Source View' pop-up window. The pop-up window displays the original text in black and the student's text in red. A red 'x' button is in the top right corner of the pop-up. An arrow points from the 'x' button to a callout box that says 'Close this window'. Another arrow points from the 'Full Source View' button in the pop-up to a 'Full Source Text' window. A callout box next to this arrow says 'View the full text for this source'. The 'Full Source Text' window shows the full text of the source, with the student's text highlighted in red.
